The story takes place in the little village of Highbury. The main character is Emma. Emma believes that she is very good at match-making. She enjoys imagining that people are in love with each other, but she is usually wrong. She is even wrong about herself.

One day, Frank Churchill, a very good-looking young man comes to stay with Emma's best friend, Mrs Weston. Frank is the son of Mr Weston, her husband. Emma imagines that everyone must want her to marry Frank Churchill. She herself thinks they are a good match. Sadly, she isn't in love with him. However, she believes that he is in love with her. They flirt together and everyone thinks that they are in love.

Later, they find out that Frank Churchill has tricked them all. He is secretly engaged to Jane Fairfax. He flirted with Emma to hide the fact that he is in love with Jane. When he announces his engagement to his father and Mrs Weston, they are very upset. They think the news will hurt Emma. Mr Knightley also thinks that Emma will be upset. By this time Emma knows that she is in love with Mr Knightley. Fortunately, he is in love with Emma. And so the story ends very happily with the marriage of Emma and Mr Knightley.
